National Change Management Framework

Outcomes of successful eHealth change lead to solution adoption and clinical value, benefits realization and overall health care delivery transformation, positively impacting health outcomes for all Canadians.